Date 2/22/74

[ ] Correctional Officer, Federal Correctional Institution-Oxford, Adams County, Wisconsin, resides at Box 211, Oxford, Wisconsin. [ ] advised he has been employed by the Bureau of Prisons since October, 1973. Since being employed at the Federal Correctional Institution-Oxford in October, 1973, his duty shifts have rotated as to time of day as well as cottage assignment.

[ ] stated that on 2/11/74 he was on "day watch" in the Adams Cottage. [ ] stated that at approximately 11:30 AM, Inmates JARRETT and [ ] entered the cottage through the front door. [ ] stated that JARRETT came to the office and inquired of [ ] "Did you want me for something?" [ ] informed JARRETT that he did not want to talk to him at this time. [ ] stated that JARRETT went on down the corridor to his room or to the day room but [ ] did not observe precisely where JARRETT went.

b7C

[ ] stated that shortly thereafter, at approximately 11:40 AM, JARRETT returned to the office and asked [ ] if he would call JARRETT's detail officer in the administration building, [ ] and inform [ ] that JARRETT had a meeting scheduled with his case manager, [ ] and [ ] the Correctional Counselor for Adams Cottage at 12:15 PM. JARRETT requested [ ] to determine if it would be OK if he remained in the cottage until after the meeting at which time he would report to his work detail. [ ] stated he called [ ] JARRETT's detail officer, and asked if it would be OK for JARRETT to return after the meeting to which [ ] responded in the affirmative. [ ] stated JARRETT was standing right there during the conversation with [ ] and at the conclusion, [ ] informed JARRETT that [ ] had consented to JARRETT remaining in the cottage until after the meeting.

[ ] stated he then handed a memo (the standard short form memorandum of the Justice Department) to JARRETT which indicated he was being assigned extra duty that evening which was specifically to wash the windows in the [ ] stated he picked up five assignment memos (JARRETT's and four others) and started down the corridor. [ ] stated he placed the memos on the lockers or dressers of the inmates who were not in and then went to JARRETT's room. As he entered the room, JARRETT was on his bed and [ ] placed the memo on his locker. [ ] stated JARRETT immediately jumped up, grabbed the memo and said "I told you I don't want the damn thing." [ ] responded to JARRETT by stating "That will be up to you and the evening officer."

[ ] stated at this time he was standing in the doorway of JARRETT's room and JARRETT came at him, pushed him back into the hall and in order to protect himself from being hit, he grabbed on to JARRETT. [ ] stated that he and JARRETT hit the wall on the other side of JARRETT's room in the hall. [ ] stated that his back was up against the wall. He said that as soon as he and JARRETT hit the wall, JARRETT's head was against [ ] chest, pinning him against the wall. [ ] stated that JARRETT reached up with his right hand and raked [ ] across the eyes a couple of times. [ ] stated to the best of his recollection, no words were spoken by either him or JARRETT at the time. [ ] stated he spun away from the wall as Inmate [ ] stepped in between him and JARRETT. [ ] stated [ ] pulled JARRETT away and, as he was doing so, JARRETT swung at [ ] but missed and he, [ ] had backed away.

[ ] Case Manager, Federal Correctional Institution - Oxford, Adams County, Wisconsin, who resides at P. O. Box 104, Briggsville, Wisconsin, advised he is the case manager (formerly referred to as case worker) for Inmate RONALD JARRETT.

[ ] advised that on 2/11/74 at approximately 11:45 AM, he went to the Adams Cottage within the compound and, as he entered the main entrance, he observed JARRETT standing in the entry way. [ ] stated he greeted JARRETT by stating "Hello JARRETT" to which JARRETT responded [ ] is the perfect example of an incompetent officer." [ ] stated that JARRETT completed the sentence with words something in the terms of "He is really screwed up," or "He is really fucked up." [ ] stated he responded to JARRETT by stating "Well you know if it wasn't for all of us imperfect people, you perfect people wouldn't have anyone to look down on." [ ] indicated that his response was made in a joking manner in that he frequently jokes with JARRETT. JARRETT then stated "I feel like punching him in the head."

[ ] indicated that at this point he became very serious with JARRETT and inquired of JARRETT "Are you aware of the severe penalty for assaulting a Federal Officer?" You could get three to five years. Forget any ideas of that kind. I don't want to hear that sort of talk from you." [ ] stated that with these remarks JARRETT nodded his head, indicating agreement with [ ] comments, and JARRETT walked away.

[ ] stated he then went to [ ] office and talked with [ ] is the Correctional Counselor for Adams Cottage. [ ] indicated he and [ ] were talking and about 11:55 AM, [ ] the correctional officer on duty, entered the office. [ ] stated [ ] was rubbing the area around his eyes with one hand and was holding his glasses with the other hand. [ ] was blinking his eyes rapidly and his eyes were watering as if he had trouble seeing. [ ] stated [ ] was out of breath and his face was red from his cheekbones to about mid-forehead. [redacted] Correctional Counselor, Adams Cottage, Federal Correctional Institution - Oxford, Adams County, Wisconsin, a white male, advised that at approximately 11:50 AM, 2/11/74, he was in the office at the Adams Cottage going through files. [redacted] stated that [redacted] the Correctional Officer for the Cottage on day watch, came to the office door and stated [redacted] [redacted] advised he looked up and observed [redacted] in the doorway and could see that something was bothering him. He then stated "What's the matter?" [redacted] responded by stating "I just had a confrontation with JARRETT." [redacted] inquired as to whether he was hurt to which [redacted] responded "Just scratched," as he rubbed the area above his eyes. [redacted] advised that he observed scratches that appeared to be welts underneath [redacted] eyes and on his forehead. [redacted] stated he instructed [redacted] to call the Correctional Supervisor, advise him of the incident and to send some help to the cottage.

[redacted] stated that he then went to the room of Inmate RONALD JARRETT and on his way to JARRETT's room, he observed approximately seven inmates in the day room area of the cottage. [redacted] indicated that the only two inmates he can recall by name were [redacted] and [redacted] advised that as he approached JARRETT's room, there were no other inmates in the immediate area. When he arrived at JARRETT's room, JARRETT was lying on his bed and, upon noticing [redacted] jumped up and [redacted] observed that JARRETT was still huffing and was breathless. [redacted] stated that JARRETT was extremely agitated and incoherent in his speech. JARRETT showed [redacted] two marks, one on his elbow and one on his forearm, which [redacted] described as red marks. [redacted] inquired "What's going on with you?" to which JARRETT handed him a carbon copy of a white memo, the contents of which [redacted] could not recall. [redacted] stated that he did not have his glasses with him so JARRETT provided his glasses for [redacted] to use in reading the memo. [redacted] stated that to the best of his recollection, the memo had something to do with JARRETT being assigned additional duties. [redacted] stated that he wasn't paying much attention to the contents of the memo or to additional comments being made by JARRETT. [redacted] stated he was trying to evaluate JARRETT's behavior and was trying to determine in his own mind how much help, if any, would be needed to remove JARRETT from the cottage and take him to segregation. [ ] stated that JARRETT eventually calmed down at which time [ ] instructed him to get his coat on and JARRETT complied. [ ] then escorted JARRETT out of the cottage and when they were outside, JARRETT inquired as to what was now going to happen to his requested transfer to Sandstone. [ ] stated that this appeared to be uppermost in JARRETT's mind.

b7C

[ ] stated on their way across the compound, they were met by Lieutenant [ ] who accompanied them to the segregation unit.

[ ] stated that JARRETT's behavior and attitude on the way to segregation was good. [ ] concluded by stating that for the previous ten days, JARRETT had been "up tight about something" but [ ] had no explanation as to why.

I, [redacted] have been advised of the official identities of Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] of the FBI.

I made this statement voluntarily and with total freedom. On February 11, 1974, at approximately 11:45 AM I was standing in the hallway watching television when I saw at a distance of 30 to 35 feet, [redacted] and Ronald Jarrett scuffling. I immediately ran toward them in order to separate them. I remained between them for several seconds at which time [redacted] ran to [redacted] office. After [redacted] ran to the office Jarrett returned to his room.

"On Feb. 11, 1974 at approximately 11:45 am, I left the Adams Cottage for my work detail in the Administration Bldg. When I left the cottage, Mr. [redacted] was standing in his office. I had observed Mr. Jarrett in the corridor about 11:30 am. I did not know about the incident between [redacted] and Jarrett until about 4:15 pm. I can't specifically recall the names of any other fellows that may have been in the cottage at the time. I do not know of any previous animosity between [redacted] and Jarrett that would have led to the incident on Feb. 11, 1974.

"I have read the above statement and have refreshed my recollection on the day and incident in question.

"I, [redacted] having been advised of the identities of SA [redacted] of the FBI and [redacted], Records Supervisor, FCI - Oxford; do freely and voluntarily provide this statement.

"On Feb. 11, 1974 at approximately 11:45 am I was watching TV in the Day Room of Adams Cottage. I was sitting 4 - 5 feet back and right in front of the TV. I wasn't paying much attention to what was happening, until I heard Ron Jarrett say "don't push me." I heard some commotion so I jumped up and went to a point where I could see what was happening. The first thing I observed was [redacted] standing between Jarrett and Mr. [redacted]. By the time I got down there, they had split up. [redacted] went up front and Jarrett went back in his room. I can't recall any other fellows that were in the cottage. To my knowledge [redacted] did not have any gripe with Jarrett and I don't know of any real gripe Jarrett would have previously had with [redacted]. [redacted] does a lot of petty things, like writes foolish tickets. I don't think he gets along very well with the other fellows in the cottage. He is very nervous. He gave me a foolish ticket the following afternoon.

[redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents, as well as the fact that he was being interviewed concerning the possibility of his being witness to an altercation that occurred between inmate RONALD JARRETT and [redacted] Correctional Officer, FCI-Oxford. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that he was in fact an inmate at FCI-Oxford and confirmed his inmate number in that institution as [redacted]. He provided his date of birth as [redacted] place of birth as [redacted] and Social Security Number [redacted] indicated that he had completed his education up through the eleventh grade and was able to read and understand English.

[redacted] recalled that he was in the recreation room of Adams Cottage at the FCI-Oxford watching television when he first heard of a fight between an inmate RONALD JARRETT and a Correctional Officer whom [redacted] knew as [redacted]. He had been laying down on the couch watching television by himself and was not in the presence of inmate [redacted] at the time. As best he could recall, he had been in the recreation room approximately one half hour before overhearing the conversation of other inmates who were relating the story that he had heard concerning a fight between JARRETT and [redacted] does not recall who the inmates were who were discussing the matter and he had attributed it to the grape vine system of FCI-Oxford. b6 b7C

[redacted] denies having talked to [redacted] after the fight had occurred and also denies having talked to JARRETT after the fight had occurred. His only knowledge of the fight was in the above related circumstances of him finding out about it from over-

[redacted] Physician's Assistant, Federal Correctional Institution (FCI)-Oxford, Adams County, Wisconsin, advised that on February 11, 1974, he treated [redacted] Correctional Officer, FCI-Oxford, and diagnosed [redacted] injuries as "scratches from the finger-nail." [redacted] advised that he has been with the Bureau of Prisons for eighteen years, fourteen of which were as a correctional officer. For the last four years, he has been in the medical services of the Bureau of Prisons as a physician's assistant.

[redacted] stated that in his eighteen years in the penal system, he has observed numerous scratches and scuff marks on inmates as well as officers. He advised that from his experience, it would be his opinion that the scratches on the forehead and face of Officer [redacted] were from finger-nails. [redacted] advised that the only treatment given [redacted] was that he put some bacracin ointment on the scratches.

[redacted] provided a copy of the preliminary medical report of injury which pertains to the treatment given to Officer [redacted]. Medical report is attached hereto.

[redacted] Hospital Administrator,
Federal Correctional Institution (FCI)-Oxford, Adams County, Wisconsin, advised that on February 11, 1974, he examined inmate JARRETT.

[redacted] advised that JARRETT had some slight redness on the top of his right elbow. [redacted] indicated that if he had not been previously informed of what had happened, he could have easily missed the redness in that it was so minor. [redacted] stated that there was no swelling or other discoloration on JARRETT's arms or other portions of the body. [redacted] indicated that no treatment was given

The following investigation was conducted at Madison, Wisconsin, by SA [REDACTED]

On March 27, 1974, facts of this case were presented to the Federal Grand Jury in Madison, Wisconsin, whereupon a True Bill Indictment was returned.

The following investigation was conducted at Madison, Wisconsin, by SA [REDACTED]

On April 10, 1974, [REDACTED] United States Marshal, Western District of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised that RONALD JARRETT has not yet been brought before the United States Magistrate for initial appearance on the indictment.

[REDACTED] advised that the initial appearance had been scheduled for April 9, 1974, but JARRETT's attorney from Chicago, Illinois, was unable to make an appearance, and therefore, the case has now been set for April 16, 1974.

b7c

On April 15, 1974, JOHN O. OLSON, United States Attorney, Western District of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised that they have negotiated with the attorney for JARRETT from Chicago, Illinois, and JARRETT will be entering a plea of guilty to a misdemeanor charge of assault on April 16, 1974. OLSON advised that in turn for the reduction of sentence, the United States Government will request that a sentence be imposed, wherein the time for the assault will be consecutive with the time that subject is now serving.

On April 17, 1974, Assistant United States Attorney [REDACTED] Western District of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised that on April 16, 1974, JARRETT appeared before the United States District Judge JAMES DOYLE, Western District of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, whereupon he entered a plea of guilty to a charge of assault in violation of Title 18, Section 113 (d).

[redacted] advised that Judge DOYLE accepted the plea of guilty, but did not impose sentence, and requested that a pre-sentence investigation be conducted. [redacted] advised that the pre-sentence investigation is to be completed in 3 weeks, at which time, JARRETT will be sentenced.
